ATTENTION GRADUATING SENIORS

The Office of Career Resources helps students and alumni to define their career objectives and to look for jobs. This service provides up-to-date listings of internships (a good idea for alumni to gain real-life work experience), full-time, part-time, and freelance jobs in all art and design fields. The office sponsors regular workshops on resume preparation and seminars on careers in the arts. The office has hand-out material and filmstrips pertaining to these subjects. It maintains a career library with information on grants, graduate schools, careers, etc. The Director offers career counseling (by appointment) in all these areas.

In addition, the Mass Art Job Listings Bulletin is a weekly publication mailed by the Office of Career Resources for the convenience of the Degree and Certificate alumni who may have problems coming into the school for this information. This bulletin contains job listings, opportunities, and Career Resources announcements and is mailed free of charge to all Mass Art alumni for one year. After one year, there will be a $25.00 annual charge. To add your name to the subscription list, send your name, address, zip code, phone number, type of jobs most interested in, and (if you graduated more than one year ago) $25.00 to:

The Office of Career Resources
Mass. College of Art
621 Huntington Ave.
Boston, Mass. 02115.

Students not awarded a degree or certificate are not eligible for the bulletin service. All information will be verified with the registrar.

THANKS FOR A SUPER REGISTRATION

A special thank you to all the students, faculty, and staff who were involved in Registration. The efforts of each one of you helped make this one of the best registrations in recent years. Enjoy your summer!

THOMPSON GALLERY PROPOSALS

Proposals are now being accepted for shows in the Thompson Gallery, Longwood Building for Fall and Spring, 1988-89. Proposals should include the name, address and phone number of the student or contact person (for department shows), as well as a brief description of the work to be shown, technical requirements and two (approximate) choices of dates(six day slots).Deadline for proposals is Friday, May 13. Submit them to Maureen Cosgrove via mailbox in June's Office (Longwood) or 3rd Floor Tower Building (MFA Section).

THEATRE IN THE STUDENT CENTER

On May 18 and 19, the Calliope Theatre Company will be presenting Orgasmo Adulto Escapes From the Zoo, at 8:00 pm in the Mass Art Student Center.This collection of four individual pieces was created in Italy by Dario Fo and Franca Rame. It was adapted by Estelle Parsons, who toured this version all over the United States and subsequently enjoyed a triumphant run at Joseph Papp's Public Theater in New York. The pieces concern four women in preposterous situations exploring the world of sense and nonsense. They are based in comedy, but lurking behind the laughter are the shocks of recognition about women and their relationships to men, the church, the home, and the workplace.

The Mass Art Student Center isn't the first place that comes to mind for great theatre in Boston, but what a pleasant surprise it's been! For the benefit of those of you who missed the Laughing Gravy Theatre earlier this semester (and that's most of you) the Student Centers' Director, Marcia Morrison has some connections in the theatre world around here and she knows how to pick 'em. Tickets are $6.00; $3.00 for students with ID.

SATURDAY STUDIOS '50ISH' ANNIVERSARY

This past Saturday, May 7, the Art Education Department held a reception in recognition of the many years that the College's Saturday Studio classes have been in existence. An exhibition, entitled "Our 50ish Anniversary" in the Tower Buildings' 11th Floor Gallery joined the work of past and present Saturday Studio students.

Students from many years were on hand for the informal reception which was held from 11:00 am until noon at the 11th Floor Gallery.

Brief remarks were made by Mass College of Art President Dr. William O'Neil, former Mass College of Art President Robert Bertolli (whose interest in art began as a student in the Saturday Studio classes), Anne Jackson, a very active and enthusiastic member of our College's Board of Trustees and Art Education Chairperson Diana Korzenik.

The exhibition was coordinated by Art Education faculty member Trintje Jansen along with Van Miller. The reception cultivated many memories of Saturday Studio classes held years ago.

INSTALLATION ARTISTS WORKING AT MIT

Kirstin Jones and Andrew Ginzel, two New York based installation artists will be working on "Charybdis" a diorama based on the legendary whirlpool at the List Visual Center at M.I.T. from now until May 26. The finished work will then be on view until June 26. Students are encouraged to check out the work in progress, talk to these two successful artists and participate in the making if they so desire. This is a great opportunity to meet artists working in non-traditional media, and find out how they have gotten funding, dealt with materials, and worked with the unique problems of the installation medium. For further information call Toni Elka at M.I.T. at 253-4400.

HEALTH OFFICE

Tower Building, 6th Floor, Room 651 has a nurse practitioner available by beeper Monday through Friday, 9:00am-5:00pm, for emergencies. Office hours are: Monday-Friday,9:30-11:30am, and 1:00-3:30pm. Meetings, etc., may affect daily schedules. It is helpful to phone ahead, if possible at x 364.Even better, you can schedule an appointment.

A physician will be in the Office on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10:30am-12:00 noon. Appointments are usually necessary.

ARTS IN THE SQUARE -OUTDOOR FESTIVAL IN CAMBRIDGE

On Saturday, September 17, Charles Square in Harvard Square will be the sight of a brand new outdoor arts and crafts festival. All participants may offer their work for sale and may decorate their area in any way they desire. Charles Square will provide each artist with one 6' table, as well as tenting over the entire event. To be part of "Arts in the Square" a registration fee of $25.00 is required. For more information call Ann Barry at Aigner Associates, (617) 484-5151. With the Boston Arts Festival's demise, this looks like at least a step toward a major outdoor arts festival in the Boston area. As artists, all of us should strongly support any effort in that direction. A city with as large an arts community as Boston needs a summer arts festival.
